20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The TAC conducts public meetings, submits reports and recommendations to the Commission, and otherwise assists the Commission with identifying and understanding the impact and implications of technological innovation in the financial services and commodity markets. The TAC will continue to accomplish this purpose by providing advice on 1) the application and utilization of new technologies in the financial services and commodity markets and by market professionals and users; 2) the appropriate level of investment in technology at the Commission to meet its surveillance and enforcement responsibilities; and 3) the need for strategies to implement rules and regulations to support the Commission's mission of facilitating market-enhancing innovation and ensuring the integrity of the markets. The TAC is currently exploring timely areas of technological innovation through its three substantive subcommittees: Digital Assets and Blockchain Technology; Cybersecurity; and Emerging and Evolving Technologies.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Commission has continued to keep the TAC's membership balanced by appointing members representing a wide array of backgrounds, including those who represent (i) Market Participants in the derivatives and commodities markets; (ii) Financial Technology Providers; (iii) Market Infrastructure Firms, like exchanges and clearinghouses; (iv) Other segments of the derivatives and commodities industries; (v) Regulatory Organizations, which may include Self-Regulatory Organizations; (vi) Academia; and (vii) Think Tanks and Public Interest Groups.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The TAC has historically attempted to meet two to three times a year. The Commission has relied upon and benefited from the advice and recommendations of the TAC members. TAC members have diverse backgrounds in technology issues that keep TAC as well as subcommittee topics relevant and timely. In 2023, the TAC held formal meetings on March 22, 2023, and July 18, 2023.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Developments in technology impact the markets regulated by the CFTC and the regulatory choices made by the agency. Recent innovations that may significantly impact our markets include BlockChain, Distributed Ledger Technology (DLT), Virtual Currencies, cybersecurity innovations and evolution in approaches to cyber threats, and Artificial Intelligence / Machine Learning. The TAC allows the Commission to be an active participant in market innovation, the TAC encourages the Commission to explore the appropriate investment in technology, and the TAC advises the Commission on the need for strategies to implement rules and regulations to support the Commission's mission of facilitating market-enhancing innovation and ensuring the integrity of the markets. By leveraging the expertise of the TAC Members and their particularized knowledge, the Commission can keep pace with rapidly developing technologies and business models in order to ensure open, transparent, competitive, and financially sound markets.
