20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Advisory Council on Children's Education Television is established by statute to advise the Secretary of Commerce on matters related to the administration of the National Endowment for Children's Educational Television (NECET).

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Advisory Council membership was carefully selected to conform to the statutory mandate that members have expertise in the fields of education, psychology, child development, or television programming, or related disciplines.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

No meetings of the Advisory Council on Children's Education Television were held during this fiscal year. NECET did not receive a Congressional appropriation for this fiscal year. If future Congressional appropriations to NECET are made, it is anticipated that the Advisory Council will continue to meet one to three times a year, usually for one day, in Washington, DC to advise the Secretary on matters related to the administration of NECET, particularly the development of program guidelines and related evaluation criteria.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

N/A

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A

21. Remarks

Committee was administratively inactive in FY 2019, not chartered as reported. Committee has been requested to be terminated.
