20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee of Chairs advises the Secretary of Commerce and the United States Trade Representative (USTR) concerning the trade matters of common interest to the Industry Trade Advisory Committees (ITACs) with respect to the operation of any trade agreement once entered into and other matters arising in connection with the development, implementation, and administration of the trade policy of the U.S. including those matters referred to in Reorganization Plan Number 3 of 1979 and E.O. 12188, and the priorities for actions thereunder. The Committee performs such functions and duties as required by section 135(c) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, with respect to the ITACs. The Committee also performs such other advisory functions relevant to trade policy matters and the effective administration of the ITAC Program as may be requested by the Secretary and the USTR or their designees.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Committee of Chairs is comprised of the Chairs of the fifteen Industry Trade Advisory Committees(ITACs) established by the Secretary and the USTR pursuant to section 135(c)(2) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. Membership on this Committee is automatically conferred by virtue of being elected Chair of an ITAC, and no further appointment is required. There is no Chair of the Committee of Chairs as of equal status and report out through the Assistant Secretary for Industry & Analysis and the Assistant USTR for Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Engagement. The Director of the Industry Trade Advisory Center serves as the DFO for this Committee.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Estimated Number of Meetings Per Year 2-4.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

This Committee is essential to carry out the Secretary and USTR's responsibilities under section 135(c)(2) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, as delegated by E.O. 11846 of March 27, 1975. There is no other Committee that can perform the duties of this Committee.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

The Industry Trade Advisory Committees (ITACs) were established by the Trade Act of 1974 and in accordance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA). Subsection 135(f) of the Trade Act provides that the ITACs shall be exempt from the provisions of the FACA relating to open meetings, public notice, public participation, and public availability of documents when it is determined that the proceedings would, if disclosed, seriously compromise the Government's negotiating objectives or bargaining positions regarding trade policy matters. ITAC meetings routinely involve these kinds of discussions. The United States Trade Representative evaluates each meeting agenda and issues a Notice of Determination when it is necessary to close meetings.

21. Remarks

Subcommittees, or their equivalents, are authorized to be formed under the terms of the Committees' charters, which were issued pursuant to Subsection 135 (f) of the Trade Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-618) as amended, and the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463). Because subcommittees, or their equivalents, do not report out independently but through the parent Committee, the costs are included under the parent Committee. There is no Chair of the Committee of Chairs. This Committee and all the ITACs report out through the A/S for Industry & Analysis and the Assistant USTR for IAPC to the Secretary of Commerce and the United States Trade Representative pursuant to its charter. ITAC members are appointed at the start of a new charter term and on a rolling basis throughout the four-year charter term.

Resignations occur when a members change representation, leaves employment, due to ill-health, or no longer wants to serve as an advisor and departs prior to membership expiration date. All members who resign in the FY are kept on the ACR with effective resignation date.

Narrative Description

The Committee advises the Secretary and the USTR concerning the trade matters of common interest to the ITACs; with respect to the operation of any trade agreement once entered into; and with respect to other matters arising in connection with the development, implementation, and administration of the trade policy of the United States including those matters referred to in Reorganization Plan Number 3 of 1979 and Executive Order 12188, and the priorities for actions thereunder. In addition, the Committee performs such functions and duties as required by section 135 of the Act with respect to the ITACs. The Committee also performs such other advisory functions relevant to trade policy matters as may be requested by the Secretary and the USTR or their designees.

Does the agency provide the committee with feedback regarding actions taken to implement recommendations or advice offered?

Yes ☒ No ☐ Not Applicable ☐

Agency Feedback Comments

Feedback is usually rendered orally by the trade negotiators during ITAC meetings; formal written advice by the ITAC Chairs is responded to in writing by the Secretary of Commerce and the USTR, or their designees, and it is reviewed by Secretary's policy staff. Commerce internal procedures require that all responses for Secretarial signature (and/or joint signature with USTR) go through a concurrence process which ensures that the appropriate level Commerce officials are seeing the advice and have a chance to provide input into response letter. All formal responses must be cleared by the Under Secretary of Commerce for International Trade prior to Secretary's signature, which ensures that ITAC advice is weighed and considered.
