20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The DSB advises the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense and/or the Deputy Secretary of Defense, through the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering (USD(R&E)); on scientific, technical, manufacturing, acquisition process, and other matters of special interest to the Department of Defense. The DSB directly supports the National Defense Strategy and the Secretary's top priorities by conducting studies, directed via approved Terms of References (ToRs). Through discussion and deliberation, the DSB provides independent advice and recommendations in the form of briefings and reports.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Defense Science Board, composed of members designated from civilian life by the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering, makes recommendations on issues in areas such as scientific, technical, manufacturing, and matters of special interest to the Department of Defense. The Board is comprised of a balanced group of senior appointees representing a broad spectrum of the industrial, manufacturing, academic, and scientific communities who are recognized authorities in their fields of expertise. The Board consists of a core membership of 40 members augmented by ad hoc consultants who serve as special government employees on designated Task Forces.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Board meets three to four times per year. The majority of indepth investigation is accomplished by DSB Task Forces which usually meet once a month to accumulate data for the final report. The Task Forces are chartered by a Terms of Reference issued by USD(R&E).

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Secretary of Defense determined that the independent advice on broad scientific and technical issues provided by the Board cannot be obtained from any other DoD advisory committee due to the unique and valuable talent, skills, and expertise of the members.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings are not closed to the public unless the DoD determines the items on the planned agenda meet the closed meeting provisions of Title 5 U.S.C., Section 552b(c). Pursuant to DoD policy closed meetings can only be authorized by the DoD Sponsor, the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering, and only after consultation with the Office of the DoD General Council .

Cost Savings Comments

The total savings is impossible to determine due to the complex mix of savings, cost avoidance, and increased capability.

What is the approximate Number of recommendations produced by this committee for the life of the committee?

1,986

Number of Recommendations Comments

The DSB existed before FACA. The total number of recommendations since 1956 is approximate. In FY23 the DSB issued 98 recommendations. 2022 Defense Science Board Summer Study: 76 recommendations Secure Electronic Processing Task Force: 4 recommendations Homeland Air Defense: 9 Recommendations Microelectronics: 9 Recommendations

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Fully implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Fully Implemented Comments

DSB recommendations often deal with new concepts and capabilities. Quite often, after additional study, DoD attempts to incorporate those concepts and capabilities that it finds relevant to its mission. Interest in previous studies remains strong.

What is the approximate Percentage of these recommendations that have been or will be Partially implemented by the agency?

% of Recommendations Partially Implemented Comments

Recommendations influence the Department and are still under deliberation. DSB recommendations often deal with new concepts and capabilities. Quite often, after additional study, DoD attempts to incorporate those concepts and capabilities that it finds relevant to its mission. Interest in previous studies remains strong.

Does the agency provide the committee with feedback regarding actions taken to implement recommendations or advice offered?

Yes ☒ No ☐ Not Applicable ☐

Agency Feedback Comments

The DSB requests comment from interested parties when issuing a report. Comments are published when received. The public can obtain information on Agency feedback in the posted unclassified meeting minutes for the Board.
