20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

Committee accomplishes its purpose through advice letters.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

As called for in its authorizations, the GAC is comprised of representatives from state, local, and Tribal governments.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The GAC typically meets twice a year to discuss North American environmental issues related to the Commission for Environmental Cooperation. The Fall meeting is to discuss the CEC's Draft Operational Plan. The Spring meeting is to advise the EPA Administrator on deliverables for the annual summer Environmental Ministers meeting. In FY 2023, the GAC had two meetings. The first meeting took place December 9, 2022 and the second on May 18, 2023. The chair also participated in the Annual Environmental Ministers meeting virtually.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The GAC is authorized authorized under Article 11 of the Environmental Cooperation Agreement (ECA) between the United States, Mexico and Canada, in parallel with the United States of America, United States of Mexico, and Canada (USMCA) trade agreement; and was established pursuant to Executive Order 12915, entitled "Federal Implementation of the North American Agreement on Environmental Cooperation". The GAC was continued under the authority of Executive Order 14109.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

No meetings were closed or partially closed.

21. Remarks

All members are Tier 1 (parent committee members). There are no Tier 2 (subcommittee) members serving.

Narrative Description

The Governmental Advisory Committee (GAC) supports the agency's mission of protecting human health and the environment. The work of the GAC supports the EPA Administrator in achieving the goals of safeguarding the natural environment--air, water, and land, via trilateral activities in the Commission for Environmental Cooperation (CEC). The CEC is a trilateral institution created by the North American Agreement on Environmental Cooperation (NAAEC) and funded by the Governments of the United States, Mexico, and Canada. The GAC provides the EPA Administrator with policy perspectives from state, local and tribal government representatives. Their advice is useful to the U.S. Government as it negotiates the cooperative 5-Year Strategic Plan, and the Operational Plan with Canada and Mexico and prepares for the outcomes of the annual Environment Ministers Council Session. Each year the committee reviews and provides advice on two major CEC products. One is the Operational Plan and the other is the CEC's Annual Council Session, and other topics as directed by the EPA Administrator. Every five years the Strategic plan is also reviewed by the GAC. The Operational Plan addresses key issues in the CEC Strategic Plan, which sets tri-lateral priorities for environmental management in North America. The current five priority areas in the CEC Strategic plan are: 1) Clean Air, Water and Land, 2) Preventing & Reducing Pollution in the Marine Environment, 3) Circular Economy and Sustainable Materials Management, 4) Shared Ecosystems and Species and 5) Resilient Economies and Communities and 6) Effective Enforcement of Environmental Laws. There is also a cross cutting approach on "Innovative and Effective Solutions and Diverse and Inclusive Stakeholder Engagement and Public Participation." The GAC produced two advice letters in FY-2023. One on January 20, 2023, based on their December 9, 2022 meeting, related to engaging subnational governments in climate implementation of the CEC. EPA responded to their letter on February 17, 2023. The second letter is from June 23, 2023, based on their meeting on May 18, 2023. This letter contains recommendations on three topics: 1) Best Practices & Strategies for Climate Adaptation in Vulnerable Communities, 2) Local Government Actions to mitigate climate challenges and 3) Implementation of Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledge into the CEC's work. EPA responded to the GAC's letter on July 20, 2023.
