20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The committee will meet and determine its priorities for making recommendations to the Secretary of the Treasury. To do so, the members of the committee will conduct outreach in their respective communities soliciting both advice and comments on the stated goals and ideas for issues or projects that the committee should take up.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Five different parties appoint committee members. The Secretary of the Treasury selected three members and four Congressional representatives each selected one member. The Secretary's appointees were selected after an open application and nomination process.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

There were three public meetings conducted in FY2020, and three meetings are expected to occur in FY 2021.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The members of the committee are tribal leaders and executives with real world experience and expertise related to issues important to the Indian country. The Treasury Department conducts listening and consultation sessions with tribes and tribal representatives, but having a standing committee of experts who can prioritize issues related to the taxation of Indian country is important to Indian tribes and tribal members, and over time is a function that this committee is more suited to.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not Applicable

21. Remarks

Continue to hold three public meetings per year.

Narrative Description

Tribal taxation and the government-to-government nature of our relationship with Indian tribes present unique issues. The committee was established by statute partially in recognition of this fact, and the committee provides the Treasury Department with a new and focused resource for engaging and providing guidance in these areas.
