20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The host of dynamic, transnational challenges within the Southern Hemisphere demand a multi-functional and interagency approach. The committee will accomplish this purpose by providing the Secretary of Defense, through the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Commander, U.S. Southern Command, independent advice and recommendations on the dynamic, transnational challenges facing the United States and its allies with respect to the U.S. Southern Command responsibilities.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The committee membership is composed of no more than 25 members. These individuals are eminent authorities in the fields of national defense, geopolitical and national security affairs, or Latin America and the Caribbean. Note the Department of Defense has elected to terminate the committee's charter early; no members were nominated for consideration nor were any members appointed by the Secretary of Defense.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The estimated number of committee meetings per fiscal year is four (4). No meetings were held in fiscal year 2007 since the Department of Defense elected to terminate the committee's charter early.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Bringing together a unique mix of DoD and non-DoD executives, academics and private sector leaders provide a new and innovative approach to U.S. Southern Command challenges.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Meetings are not closed to the public unless the Department of Defense determines that items on the planned agenda meet the closed meeting provisions of 5 U.S.C. § 552b(c). Pursuant to DoD policy closed meetings can only be authorized by the DoD Sponsor, which is the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or designee, and only after consultation with the appropriate General Counsel office within the Department of Defense. Note: No meetings were held in fiscal year 2007 since the Department of Defense elected to terminate the committee's charter early.

21. Remarks

The Department of Defense filed the committee's charter on April 2, 2007 with the appropriate congressional committees, the Library of Congress, and the Committee Management Secretariat. Since that time, the Commander U.S. Southern Command has not taken any action to appoint a Designated Federal Officer or nominate potential committee members for approval by the Secretary of Defense. Based upon changing requirements within U.S. Southern Command, the commander has requested that the committee be terminated early. The Department of Defense concurs in that action and, as such, the charter will be terminated effective September 30, 2007. No public funds were expended for this committee and no committee were nominated for consideration or appointed to the committee.
