20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Commission reviewed the recommendations and analysis of the Secretary of Defense and provided the President its recommendations on the timely closure and realignment of military installations inside the United States.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The members were appointed by the President and were carefully selected for their expertise and knowledge in matters related to the BRAC.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

Not applicable.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

Committee was established by Public Law 101-510.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

Not applicable.

21. Remarks

The commission did not submit any reports during fiscal year 2006. The commission's statutory report to the President was submitted in fiscal year 2005. Even though the commission concluded its work in fiscal year 2005, the legislation authorizing the commission allowed the commission to operate until April 2006 to conclude any and all administrative functions required to terminate the commission. The Department of Defense further allowed the Commission staff to remain until June 2006 to conclude the archiving and transferring of the Commission's official records. Memorandum for the Record From: Margaret Reborchick, Designated Federal Officer 2005 BRAC Commission Subj: Preparation of 2006 Current FY Report: Review of Federal Advisory Committee/2005 BRAC Commission Date: June 2, 2006 While the BRAC Commission continues to believe that it is not Subject to FACA, it has complied with its requirements in the interest of openness. In the preparation of this report, expenditure inputs were provided by WHS (Jackie Jackson). Finally, it should be noted that the law firm of Wiley Rein and Fielding LLP completed a legal assessment at the direction and behest of the Commission. In spite of several reminders, the law firm has never completed administrative requirements to receive payment for its services. The estimated fee is $100,000.
