20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Committee asked Treasury to summarize the legislated mandates relating to the International Monetary Fund (IMF); Treasury and outside experts provided commentary on the mandates, and described steps taken to implement the mandates. The Committee then discussed the issues and offered comment/advice to Treasury as it deemed appropriate.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

Congress created the Committee. Its members reflect various groups that have strong interest in the IMF and the legislated mandates, e.g. a human rights lawyer represents human rights/social policy interests.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?
The Committee met roughly on a quarterly frequency. Discussions were focused on specific topical matters.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?
To offer advice to the Treasury Department as it works to affect policy changes in the IMF.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?
NA
